

Pre-Season Club Affairs Honor Prospective Members

Members and prospective members of Torrance Junior Woman's Club gathered on a recent Sunday at the lovely home of Mrs. Ben R. Rusk, 1319 W. 221st street.

The occasion was a get-acquainted breakfast with an attendance of approximately 80. Mesdames Gerald G. Grubb, Michael Orend Jr., and Merle Richardson assisted Mrs. Rusk as co-hostesses.

Served at the gaily appointed table, colorful with a fruit bowl center were citrus fruit, and melon balls, sweet rolls, and coffee.

Another recent event given to honor prospective members was a patio luncheon at the home of Mrs. William Boswell Jr., 803 Acacia avenue.

Seated at long tables, guests enjoyed a luncheon with eggs creole as the entree. Executive board members were hostesses for the delightful party and also on hand to greet the newcomers were Club Advisors Misses Dean L. Sears, John T. Oursler, and W. T. Filolson.

Mrs. Philip H. Jensen, club president, welcomed the prospective members and invited them

PIANIST-TEACHER TO SERVE WITH SYMPHONY

Kathryne Buffington, pianist-teacher, whose studio is at 1434 Post avenue, is an accredited teacher. Students studying with her in colleges and junior colleges receive credit for piano study.

KATHRYNE BUFFINGTON RECEIVES NEW HONOR... Kathryne Buffington, who recently was appointed to the office of second vice president of the South Bay Civic Symphony Association, will serve that organization as auditions chairman.

Miss Beverly Luster, who this year won a scholarship to Pepperdine College, is continuing her study with Mrs. Buffington, and receiving credit at the College.

Mrs. Buffington, who recently attended the National Music

KENNETH CELEBRATES Among recent enjoyable children's parties was that given by Mrs. Earl Hudson, of 1016 Crenshaw boulevard on the occasion of Kenneth's sixth birthday.

All day suckers, toy balloons, and other party favors delighted the children and a pink and white iced cake inscribed "Happy Birthday Ken" and ice cream were served preceding a play period devoted to games.

Present were the honoree and Mark and Dick Eubanks, Diane Pisel, Leslie Joanne, and Barry Trezise, Wendell and Glen Summers, and DeJores Hudson.

Card Party

Mrs. Walter Schaefer will serve as chairman for this evening's Catholic card party in Nativity hall, Cota at Manuel avenue. Everyone is invited to attend these enjoyable weekly parties. Tallies may be procured at the door.

At the close of play while tallies are being added Mrs. Schaefer and her committee will serve delicious refreshments. Serving on this committee are Misses Bernard Dougan, Robert Batty, John Harvey, John V. Murray, Anthony Jessome, William Hixson, Henry Sifers, Dewey Hamilton, Nick Eaven, William Souza, John Allen, Kenneth Cunningham, Alfred Dutz, and Silvester Sullivan.

Business, Professional Clubwomen Hear FBI Man

A gratifying number of members and guests attended the dinner meeting Monday night of Torrance National Business and Professional Women's Club.

James J. O'Connell of the Bureau of Federal Investigation entertained the group with a review of some of the interesting functions of his department. During an informal discussion it was brought out that the requirements necessary to become an agent of the FBI are that an applicant must be between the ages of 23 and 35 and either a graduate of a law school or a certified public accountant.

back to duty was made by Mrs. Florence Becker, co-chairman of the service. The aides will be assigned exclusively to duties associated with the operation of the Los Angeles Regional Blood Service center at 925 South Western avenue, and on daily visits of the mobile blood unit.

MRS. HALLIBURTON IS PARTY HONOREE

Honoring her mother, Mrs. Cora Halliburton, on the occasion of her 75th birthday Mrs. Lela Gonner of 18002 Prairie avenue, entertained recently with an enjoyable party in Torrance city park.

Assisting Mrs. Gonner with party arrangements were her sister Mrs. Rena Solomon of Lawndale, and her daughter, Mrs. Lorraine Mann.

A decorated birthday cake, inscribed with appropriate greetings and denoting the celebrant's age, was cut after delicious individual chicken pies, made by Mrs. Gonner, had been served with other party foods.

A beautiful orchid corsage and many personal gifts were presented to the honoree by representatives of five generations of her family, including those above mentioned and Mrs. Barbara Mann Flynn, and young daughter Patricia Joyce. Also present were the ladies' husbands. Out of town guests were the honor guests, son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. George LeFrancis of Oakland; her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Hamilton.
